involved in the evaluation process will not be permitted to seek clarification or additional information from any Bidder who has submitted a Financial Proposal.

- 9.2. The Financial Proposals will be checked for computational errors or material omissions and prices will be corrected and adjusted as necessary. In the case of material omissions, the cost of the relevant Financial Proposal will be increased by application of the highest unit cost and quantity of the omitted item as provided in the other submitted Financial Proposals.
- 9.3. The total price (TP) for each Financial Proposal will be determined.
- 9.4. The PMAY-G reserves the right to reject, as its sole discretions, any or all evaluated Financial Proposals and if necessary, call for submission of new Financial Proposals.
- 9.5. Each Financial Proposal will be carefully scrutinized in accordance with the procedure outlined above and total price will be determined. The score for each Financial Proposal is inversely proportional to its Total Price (TP) and is computed as follows: -

$$S_f = 100 \times F_m / F$$

Where:

S_f is the financial score of the Financial Proposal being evaluated

F_m is the TP of the lowest priced Financial Proposal

F is the TP of the Financial Proposal under consideration.

10. Ranking of Proposals

- 10.1. Following completion of evaluation of Technical and Financial Proposals, final ranking will be done by applying a weightage of 75 per cent and 25 per cent to the technical and financial score respectively of each Proposal and then computing the relevant combined total score for each bidder.
- 10.2. A comparative statement shall be prepared by the EC to analyze and select the successful bidder. The bidder obtaining highest score will be selected for award of assignment.

11. Confidentiality

Information relating to evaluation of Proposals and recommendations concerning contract award shall not be disclosed to bidders who have submitted Proposals or to other persons not officially concerned with the selection process until the successful firm has been notified and contract awarded.
